

The "Flavor" weekend in Montalcino

Description

Come to Montalcino to celebrate "the St. Martino's summer"

Two days of entertainment with music and amusement for children, wine tasting and local products

Even the cellars of Montalcino will become "gingerbread houses" to accommodate families and wine tourists and toast the new agricultural year in a atmosphere of celebration.

On this occasion, the Museo della Comunità di Montalcino e del Brunello will open to share with many fans the joy of the new wine, the so-called Novello, and the latest vintages, paired with seasonal products.

Visiting the wineries or visit the museum thus becomes also a pleasant way to liven up the dullness of the month of November days and let heat from the warm hospitality and the 'merry conviviality, in a period when, after the first cold, the climate It grants some 'respite so much as to deserve those few days the name of Indian summer.

Montalcino is waiting for you !!
