

In Montalcino between wine and horses

Description

Horseback riding for experts with lunch and wine tasting

Montalcino has a particular countryside, full of colors, lights, landscapes and scents: discover it on the back of a horse!

We will ride along country roads, skirting the vineyards and olive groves, to join the small chapels and ancient farmhouses in the surrounding countryside that will let us enjoy special moments and breathtaking views.

Two relaxing hours of a relaxant full immersion in nature, that you will be able to immortalize with many unforgettable photos.

And finally ... we will reach one of the 250 wineries in Montalcino outside of the classical tourist routes to discover the wonderful wine production of Montalcino: history, production, ruby color and aromas of this wine famous all over the world.

The lunch will be an opportunity to appreciate the taste and flavors of Tuscan cuisine, combined with local wines.

An unforgettable tour, away from the busy city!
