

Montalcino and its wines: discovering Brunello

Description

Local scents and flavors become the protagonists of special itineraries that guide travelers to discover the rural territory, guardian of art, culture and history

Rows of fine grapes grow on the gentle hills, between splendid landscapes and ancient streets, which become real itineraries to follow for those who want to get lost in colors and local gastronomic production.

The visit to these places is full of surprises and experiences that transform wine into a reality where history, culture and territory are deeply intertwined.

The producers, vineyards, wine, are just waiting for you, come to visit and taste.

Itinerary

First day

Arrival in the Country hotel

Check-in in hotel

7.30 pm Dinner in the cellar with the producer

Meeting with the guide who will accompany you to a family-run company where you can taste the typical dishes of the local tradition accompanied by the tasting of 4 wines, including of course his Majesty Brunello di Montalcino

7.45 pm Arrival at the estate

The approach to dinner will begin with a visit to the cellars where you can see where and how Montalcino wines are born. For the producer, it will be a great pleasure to welcome you to the heart of the company and tell you its story, walking among the barrels in which the wine matures silently

After the visit, dinner will begin with a selection of dishes prepared by the skilled hands of the local cook accompanied by a tasting of 4 wines

Tasting dinner accompanied by Rosso and Brunello di Montalcino in the frame of the Sienese countryside this is the experience that you are missing...

After dinner, return to the country hotel

Overnight stay in country hotels
