Montalcino between vineyards and wine cellars

Description

To discover the tradition of wines and the wonderful Val d'Orcia aboard a minivan!

Are you a wine-lover, or simply a lover of good wine?

We invite you into the land where the famous Brunello di Montalcino was born. We suggest you to stay in a country hotel, to immerse yourself in the quiet of the Tuscan countryside, to lose yourself in a thousand shades of sangiovese, the grape variety that has made Montalcino famous all over the world.

You will spend the night in a quaint country hotel of Val d'Orcia in the green and in the silence of the Tuscan countryside, discover its wines, you will know the producers and take home a wonderful memory of a land made of art, taste, history and tradition.

The producers, vineyards, wine, are just waiting for you, come to visit and taste.

Itinerary

First day

Arrival in the Country hotel

A special night, an unforgettable sunset just near to the vineyards from which the Brunello di Montalcino comes.

This is the setting for a Tasting By Night; a moment to remember and to bring at home with you that will take a special place in your experience in Val d'Orcia.

Immersed in the quiet of the countryside, in the places where the bunch of grapes born, mature, and then becomes Brunello di Montalcino, you will spend a special time, savor the smells and flavors of the local tradition, the colors of the countryside at sunset.

Tasting dinner accompanied by Rosso and Brunello di Montalcino in the frame of the Sienese countryside this is the experience that you are missing...
